

Lydia

Dean Friedman

Key of C

Verse 1:

C
Lydia keeps my toothbrush in her apartment and she never complains.
Bb C
Well, hardly ever. And then jokingly she says
Bb Am
Boy, it's been so long since I held you, I nearly gave you up for dead.
Bb
I nearly gave you up for dead.
Gm G
I nearly gave you up for dead.

Chorus:

C F
Lydia, Lydia how come you understand?
Bb
I can offer you nothing at all.
Am Gsus4 G
This is more than I had planned.
C F Bb
Lydia, Lydia I am at your command, at least until morning comes,
Dm
Then, I must be off again.
Ab Bb C
I must be off again

Verse 2:

C Bb
Lydia, you know I always talk about making conscious decisions
Am
About running my own life.
Bb C
Well, maybe I'm fooling myself, it's a role I like to play.
Bb
Because more often than not I'm down here on the corner.
Am
I'm sorry I woke you.
Bb
Do you feel like some company?

Babe, I need a place to stay.

Chorus:

Lydia, Lydia how come you understand?

I can offer you nothing at all.

This is more than I had planned.

Lydia, Lydia I am at your command, at least until morning comes,

Then, I must be off again.

I must be off again

Orchestra Solo:

(Same chords as in verse)

Chorus:

Lydia, Lydia how come you understand?

I can offer you nothing at all.

This is more than I had planned.

Lydia, Lydia I am at your command, at least until morning comes,

Then, I must be off again.

I must be off again

Verse 3:

I sleep with a woman who thinks I'm a child.

Well, maybe I am.

No, that wouldn't surprise anyone.

I suspect that much is true.

But, Lydia, if you only knew how much I love you. Bb Am

Did you know that I love you? Bb

It's the best that I can do. Gm G

Chorus:

C F
Lydia, Lydia how come you understand?

I can offer you nothing at all. Bb

This is more than I had planned. Am Gsus4 - G

C F Bb
Lydia, Lydia I am at your command, at least until morning comes,

Then, I must be off again. Dm

I must be off again Ab Bb C
