

Innuendo

Simon Taylor

Key of A

Verse 1:

A D
There's times I get in trouble
With words and their meanings double
The stick of language would be fine
E7
But you grab the wrong end of it every time
A D
Double meanings they cause such unrest
I say something you think the rest
I said that you had great tits
E7
It was the garden birds not your lady bits

Chorus :

A F#m
It's all in your mind
D G
Innuendo
A F#m
If you look you'll find
D G
Innuendo

Verse 2:

A D
There's a song called "Come On Eileen"
It's not rude, like "My Ding A Ling"
Holly Johnson did nothing wrong
E7
"Relax Don't Do It" is just a song
A D
You think I speak in rhyming slang
You weren't impressed when I said you sang
Just a little bit like James Blunt

E7

I was being nice, you silly fool

Chorus :

A F#m

It's all in your mind

D G

Innuendo

A F#m

If you look you'll find

D G

Innuendo

Break :

G D

Frankie Howerd was the best

Bigger than all the rest

Comic fame's what I'm talking about

E7

Ooo'er missus I hear you shout

Verse 4:

A D

So if I talk about my plums

Or the windy back passage at my mums

You know if I have in my hand a pink one

E7

It's nothing more than the raffle I've won

Chorus :

A F#m

It's all in your mind

D G

Innuendo

A F#m

If you look you'll find

D G
